CODE OF CONDUCT TO REGULATE, MONITOR AND REPORT TRADING BY DESIGNATED PERSONS

As revised and approved by the Board of Directors on 09th August, 2019

CHAPTER – I

INTRODUCTION

Insider trading means dealing in securities of a company listed/traded on any stock exchange in India based on, or when in possession of, unpublished price sensitive information (UPSI).

With a view to govern the conduct of insiders on matters relating to insider trading, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) had formulated Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, including amendments thereto (hereinafter referred to as the ‘Regulations’).

Sub-regulation (1) of Regulation 9 inter alia, requires all listed companies to frame a Code of Conduct for Regulating, Monitoring and Reporting of trading by Designated Persons and their immediate relatives (hereinafter will be collectively referred to as “Designated Persons”) by adopting the minimum standards as set out in Schedule B to the Regulations.

Sub-regulation (1) of Regulation 8 requires all listed companies to formulate and publish on its website, Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information by adopting the minimum standards as set out in Schedule A to the Regulations.

Century Plyboards (India) Limited (“CPIL”) had formulated this Code of Conduct called the ‘Code of Conduct to regulate, monitor and report trading by Insiders’. Pursuant to the amendments to the Regulations and in light of its impact on the compliance and disclosures pertaining to Prohibition of Insider Trading, this Policy has been amended by the CEO/ Managing Director of the company as directed by the Board of Directors of the Company and shall hereinafter be referred to as ‘Code of Conduct to regulate, monitor and report trading by Designated Persons’ (“Code”). Designated Persons of CPIL are governed by the Code.

All the Designated Persons of CPIL are advised to carefully go through and familiarize themselves with and adhere to the Regulations and the Code.

1. THE POLICY AND OBLIGATIONS

The Company endeavors to preserve the confidentiality of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (“UPSI”) and to prevent misuse of such information. The Company is committed to transparency and fairness in dealing with all stakeholders and in ensuring adherence to all laws and regulations.

- 4.1.8. He shall ensure that prohibited period is intimated to all concerned at least 48 hours before the commencement of the said period.

5. CHINESE WALL FOR PRESERVATION OF "UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION"

The Company has a process for how and when people are brought 'inside' on sensitive transactions. Individuals are made aware of their duties and responsibilities attached to the receipt of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information and the liability that is attached to misuse or unwarranted use of such information.

Designated Persons shall maintain the confidentiality of all Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. Designated Persons shall not pass on such information to any person directly or indirectly by way of making a recommendation for the purchase or sale of securities. To prevent misuse of confidential information, the Company has put in place Chinese Walls procedures which separate persons working in those areas which routinely provide them access to confidential / UPS information, considered "inside areas" from those who deal with purchase, sale, marketing or other departments providing support services, considered "public areas". Following practices are being followed in this regard-

5.1. Need to Know

Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is to be handled on a "need to know" basis, i.e., Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the company who need the information for legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of information. All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department. In exceptional circumstances employees from the public areas may be brought "over the wall" and given confidential information on the basis of "need to know" criteria, under intimation to the Compliance Officer.

5.2. Limited access to confidential information

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc. Files containing confidential information should be deleted / destroyed after its use.

The employees in the inside area shall not communicate any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to anyone in public area.

6. PROHIBITION ON COMMUNICATING OR COUNSELING OR PROCURING UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION:

The Designated Person shall not communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the company or its securities, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

No Designated Person shall procure from or cause the communication by any other Designated Person of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the Company or its securities, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which entails:

- an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the sharing of information is in the best interests of the Company; or
- not attracting the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the sharing of information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

CHAPTER – III

TRADING RESTRICTION & PREVENTION OF MISUSE OF “UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION”

No Designated Person and their Immediate Relatives shall trade in securities of the Company when in Possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

Subject to the above, all Designated Persons of the Company including their immediate relatives shall be subject to trading restriction as enumerated below:

7. TRADING PLAN

Designated Person shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

7.1. Trading Plan shall:

7.1.1. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the Designated Person earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;

7.1.2. not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;

7.1.3. entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;

7.1.4. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;

7.1.5. set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and

7.1.6. not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

7.2. The Compliance Officer shall consider the Trading Plan made as above and shall approve it forthwith. However, he shall be entitled to take express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations. Further, pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trades executed as per an approved trading plan. Furthermore, trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

7.3. The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Designated Persons shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Designated Person is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.

7.4. Upon approval of the trading plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

8. TRADING WINDOW

8.1. The period prior to declaration of Unpublished price sensitive information is particularly sensitive for transaction in the Company's securities. This sensitivity is due to the fact that the Designated Persons will, during that period, often possess unpublished price sensitive information

The Designated Persons of the Company and their immediate relatives shall not trade in the company's securities when the trading window is closed. The period during which the trading window is closed shall be termed as Prohibited Period. The intimation of closure shall be made through email and/ or through the website of the Company. The trading window shall be closed in the manner specified in Clause 8.3 and also when the Compliance Officer determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

8.2. Unless otherwise specified by the Compliance Officer, the Trading Window for Dealing in Securities of the Company shall be closed for the following purposes-

- a. Financial results
- b. dividends
- c. change in capital structure
- d. mergers, de-mergers, acquisitions, delistings, disposals and expansion of business and such other transactions
- e. changes in Key Managerial Personnel

8.3. In respect of declaration of financial results, the Trading Window shall be made applicable from the end of every quarter.

The closure of Trading Window for purposes other than declaration of financial results and for which a specific notice/intimation is required to be given to stock exchange shall commence from the date on which intimation of the date of Board meeting for consideration of any such Price Sensitive Information is given to Stock Exchange.

However, if the circumstances so warrant, the time for closing the Trading Window may be increased or decreased by the Compliance Officer with the approval of Chairman /Managing Director.

8.4. The timing for re-opening of the trading window for the information referred in 8.2 shall be determined by the Compliance Officer taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the financial results / information becomes generally available.

8.5. The trading window restrictions shall not apply in respect of:

- i. transactions specified in clauses (i) to (iv) and (vi) of the proviso to sub-regulation (1) of regulation 4 of the Regulations and in respect of a pledge of shares for a bonafide purpose such as raising of funds, subject to pre-clearance by the compliance officer and compliance with the respective regulations made by the Board;
- ii. transactions which are undertaken in accordance with respective regulations made by the Board such as acquisition by conversion of warrants or debentures, subscribing to rights issue, further public issue, preferential allotment or tendering of shares in a buyback offer, open offer, delisting offer .”

- 8.6. All Designated Persons of the company shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only during the valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the prohibited periods or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.
- 8.7. In case of ESOPs, exercise of option may be allowed in the period when the trading window is closed. However sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when trading window is closed.

9. PRE-CLEARANCE OF TRADES

9.1. All Designated Persons of the Company and their immediate relatives who intend to deal in the securities of the company in excess of Rupees 10,00,000 whether in one or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter shall require prior clearance from the Compliance Officer.

9.2. The Pre-Clearance shall be obtained as per the procedure prescribed below:

9.2.1. An application is to be made to the Compliance Officer as per the enclosed format (Form -I) indicating the estimate number of securities that the director/ designated person/ intends to deal in, the details of securities held in physical form as to folio no., the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the Company in this regard.

9.2.2. Each Designated person shall execute in favour of the Company an undertaking in the enclosed pro-forma (Form -I) for getting the trades cleared.

The Compliance Officer shall on receiving an application provide the Designated Person with an acknowledgement on the duplicate of the application.

The Compliance Officer shall grant approval within 2 working days from the date of acknowledgement

The Compliance Officer shall retain copies of all applications and acknowledgements. In exceptional circumstances consent may not be given if the Compliance Officer is of the opinion that the proposed deal is on the basis of possession of any unpublished Price Sensitive Information. There shall be no obligation to give reasons for any withholding of consent.

If so requested by the Compliance Officer, Designated Person must ensure that his stockbroker is authorised to disclose to the Company all matters relevant to his share dealings.

9.3. The Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall execute their transactions within one week after the pre-clearance failing which they have to pre-clear the transactions again.

9.4. Trading by Portfolio Managers

This Code is also applicable to Designated Persons who engage Portfolio Managers to trade in shares and hence such Designated Persons are expected to take due precaution while trading in securities through Portfolio Managers by:

- 9.4.1. Informing Portfolio Managers about closure of trading window.
- 9.4.2. Ensuring to seek pre-clearance, wherever applicable, when the Portfolio Manager proposes to trade in Century's shares exceeding threshold limit and also make continual disclosures, wherever applicable, as provided in this Code.
- 9.4.3. Ensuring that the portfolio manager abides by the requirement of minimum holding period as provided in this Code and not do contra trade as provided in this Code.
- 9.4.4. Prohibiting the Portfolio manager to trade in securities of the Company at his own discretion or when the Designated Persons is in possession of UPSI.

Despite the above, if any trading is done by portfolio managers, it will be treated as trading done by the Designated Persons, and therefore such Designated Person will be held responsible for any such non-compliance and subject to such penalties as specified in this Code.

10. MINIMUM PERIOD FOR HOLDING OF SECURITIES

- 10.1. All Designated Persons and their immediate relatives who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. All Designated Persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time.
- 10.2. The Compliance Officer may be empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate these regulations
- 10.3. If a contra trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Board for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the Board under the Act.
- 10.4. Contra Trade restrictions will not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.
